Year 7 Topic Fact Sheet - Middle Ages Conflict

Key Terms
Middle Ages	The period in history between 1066 and 1500,
Conflict	A serious disagreement which led to the Norman Conquest of Britain.
Earldoms	A part of England spilt into a section run by an Earl.
Earl	A nobleman who owns an Earldom (part of England) and runs it independently.
Dilemma	Problems faced by the English or the Normans.
Rebels	A group of people who fought for their own beliefs or causes which differed from the King.

The Norman Conquest of England 1066 introduced the start of the Middle Ages which occurred between 1066—1500.

We will learn facts about Anglo-Saxon England.
We will learn how to use sources to describe and explain facts and expand existing knowledge about the Middle Ages. We will make comparisons between the Middles Ages and Present Day

We will explore the mind of a medieval soldier! We will consider why a famous medieval soldier, William Marshall, fought and why he risked his life.

